5th March 2021

IN THIS ISSUE

Mr Scott-Evans writes...

As we prepare to return to school next week, please join me in saying the Lord's Prayer.

Our Father, who art in Heaven, hallowed by Thy name.

Heavenly Father we recognise you as our creator God. You describe yourself as 'gracious, compassionate and abounding in love'. We thank you that during this difficult time and in the days ahead we can draw near to you and share our worries and concerns with you.

Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on Earth as it is in Heaven.

We pray that your will would be done in our school. We ask you to be our 'refuge and strength, an ever-present help in times of trouble.' We want to see our school 'bearing fruit that will last'. We know that we have been through a difficult period and we want to ensure that our students are still able to succeed and progress.

Give us this day our daily bread.

Please give us what we need at this time. Give our students confidence to take appropriate precautions. Help them to make sensible decisions. Guide our teachers as we guide our community. We want to be able to return to school and enjoy the full offer here, please give our children this again.

And forgive us our trespasses...

Lord, forgive all of us for the times we do not act in the ways that we should and for the times when we fail to act when we should.

As we forgive those who trespass against us...

Help us to forgive those who frustrate us and offend us. Help us to teach our students to forgive others.

And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.

Help our students not to be tempted to stray from the safe practices we have in place. Help us all to keep following the rules of the lockdown so that we can continue to move safely out of the crisis we have faced.

For Thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory for ever and ever.

We look forward to seeing our students and staff back in school. Thank you, Lord for supporting us with all that has needed to be done.

Amen

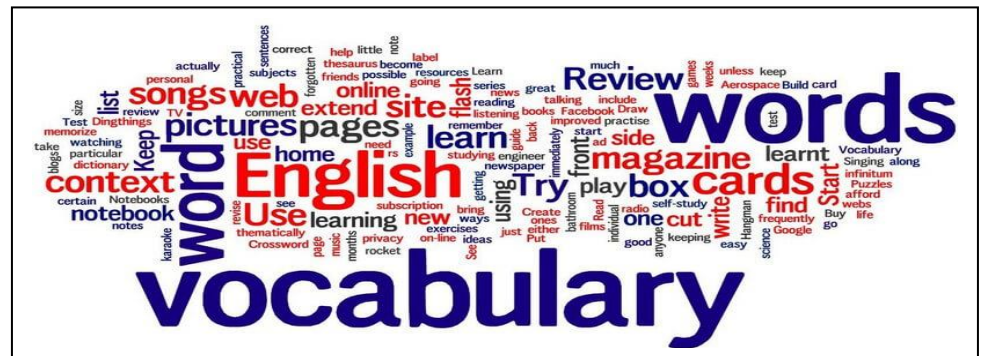

This approach to saying the Lord's Prayer is my daily discipline. I bring the needs of the school to God in prayer like this most mornings. Please continue to support us in prayer each day.

Best regards

Mr Scott-Evans

Word of the Week

perseverance

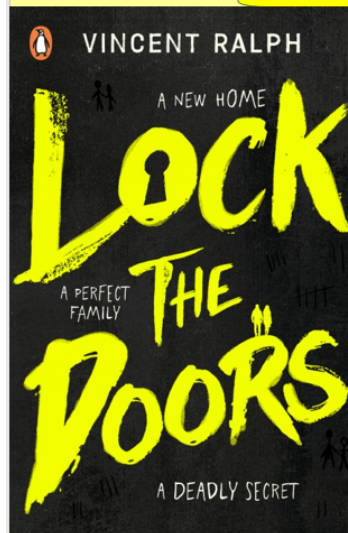

In sentences:

1. The Nasa robot called Perseverance recently landed on Mars, joining Curiosity which landed in 2012.
2. It takes planning and perseverance to learn a new skill.
3. We must show perseverance to come out of lockdown successfully.

Meaning: persistence in doing something despite difficulty or delay in achieving success; remaining loyal Etymology: from the Latin root word severus, which means following strict rules or keeping a straight path.

Book of the Month - March

WHY SHOULD I READ IT?

This is a brand new addictive, twisty thriller.

Tom and his mum have moved into their dream home, escaping an abusive relationship. But pretty soon he starts to notice that something is very suspicious - there are strange messages written on the wall and locks on the outside of the bedroom doors.

The previous owners have moved just across the road and they seem like the perfect family. Their daughter Amy is beautiful and enigmatic but Tom is sure she's got something to hide. And he isn't going to stop until he finds the truth behind those locked doors. . .

Remember that all correspondence to the school must come through the school office email:

Many thanks for your understanding.

Free School Meals

Free School Meal Vouchers Students in Year 7, 8 & 9

The school voucher scheme used by the government, Edenred, will no longer be available to support eligible FSM students as schools start to re-open from Monday 8th March. In order to continue to support our families in Year 7, 8 & 9 who will not return to school until the following week (Monday 15th March), we will be using the school voucher system, Wonde, to issue vouchers.

Parents and carers of eligible students in Year 7, 8 & 9, will receive an email from Wonde next week (8th–12th March). This message will contain a link to 'redeem a voucher'. You will be taken to Wonde's 'school vouchers' page where you will need to enter your details and confirm your email address before being asked to select the retailer you wish to receive a voucher for. You will then be given a PIN and the option to view the voucher. Having confirmed the PIN, you will be issued your voucher. The voucher barcode can be printed off or scanned on a smartphone for use in-store.

Details of the process and more questions about Wonde can be found on their website here help.schoolvouchers.com/hc/en-gb

Science Department

5-14 March
British Science
Week
2021

British Science Week is a ten-day celebration of science, technology, engineering and maths that will take place between 5-14 March 2021!

British Science Week starts today!

British Science Week is here! I hope you are ready for a ten-day celebration of science, technology, engineering and mathematics!

Each year, British Science Week creates a nationwide celebration of Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics for people of all ages with thousands of events and activities taking place across the country. Our science department at Becket Keys want as many of you as possible to get involved with science week! Our technicians and teachers have been working hard to plan activities for all year groups ranging from 'DIY' experiments to Royal Society lectures and a poster competition.

I will be posting activities daily on Satchel One for all year groups starting today! So, keep an eye on your assignments and get involved in as many different science activities as you can. Most of the activities are for you to do at home, we have also put together a science quiz which will be shared with your form tutors ready for next week.

As you take part in these activities, please share your thoughts, conclusions, results, ground-breaking theories or revolutionary experimental ideas with us on our Becket Keys Science Twitter page (@BecketKeysSci) and use the hashtag #BSW21. It would be great to also see pictures of your experiments in action!

To start science week with a bang (metaphorically of course), Mr Achillea, one of our fantastic science technicians, has put together an excellent at home practical for all year groups exploring hydrogels (see below for more information from Mr Achillea). We are also launching the BSW poster competition, see Satchel One for full details.

When carrying out any of the at home practicals you must STAY SAFE! Remember to always get permission before carrying out any practical work and to follow all of the health and safety rules we have when doing practical work in school.

Science is all around us every day and there are lots of ways we can still engage and celebrate the role that it plays in our lives. With the backdrop of a global pandemic, it is now more important than ever for us to embrace, explore and have fun doing Science!

Water Water Everywhere

As a society, we have become more conscious of our environment and how we can do our bit to slow the change in our climate. However, water seems to be a forgotten resource. With all our efforts to recycle and reduce the impact the plastic pollution, have you ever given a thought to recycling water?

Water makes up nearly 70% of our planet. Although did you know only as little as 2.5% is fresh water? Even then, just 1% of our freshwater is easily accessible, with much of it trapped in glaciers and snowfields. Essentially this 1% of water is needed to fuel and feed the whole planet's population. We are lucky to be living in a time and a country where water is readily available. Other countries are not so fortunate to have this essential resource at the turn of a tap, clean water can be hard to come by in the developing world. Not only do we need water as a life source (humans are on average 60% water) but we also require it for sanitation.

This brings me to my next point...hydrogels. You may not be familiar with the term 'hydrogels,' but we are surrounded by products containing hydrogels from hand sanitising gels, washing up liquid and even the cosmetics. Can we extract this water from these products and possibly re-use it for drinking and/or washing?

There is a practical you can perform at home to see if we can extract water. The presentation, which includes a method, is available on Satchel One and is titled 'Science week - Extraction of Water from Hydrogels.' Have a go at this and write up a report of your findings. Share your results with your teacher, fellow classmates, and the rest of the school on Twitter @BecketkeysSci. What did you discover?

Before you start any practical work at home, make sure you have permission from your parents/carers!

This next point is important. Remember to have fun! Not all science is formulas and calculations. Good luck everyone!

Road Safety

- point out people who are endangering themselves;
- encourage your teenager to practise judging the speed and distance of approaching vehicles on busy roads and identify safe gaps in the traffic;
- stress that you should never lose concentration and follow others blindly into dangerous situations.

Cycling

It is a good idea to:

- buy and encourage your son or daughter to wear a cycle helmet, and something fluorescent and reflective to improve visibility;
- encourage your son or daughter never to take lifts on the back of a friend's bike;
- remind your son or daughter not to listen to music while they are cycling;
- make sure your child is aware that cyclists must obey all traffic signs and traffic light signals.

Becket Keys has always had an outstanding reputation for the way our students behave when they are going home. We have teachers who walk with the students towards the High Street, however please remind your son/daughter to be considerate of other people and families using Sawyers Hall Lane, whether in cars or pedestrians and to acknowledge their thanks if they are given the right of way. We understand that the pavements may be congested so students must be patient and considerate.

We would also remind parents to take care and be mindful of pedestrians and other drivers when travelling. We do not want any student to be injured so please avoid driving down Sawyers Hall Lane if you can and meet your son/daughter at another location, the Brentwood Centre is ideal and only a short walk away.

More information on road safety:
<http://think.direct.gov.uk/education/secondary/>

Did you know?

Teenagers are more at risk on the roads than they think. Most teenagers do not realise that they are more likely to be killed or injured in a road collision than any other age group. Find out how to help your teenager stay safe.

Help protect your child

Please talk to your son or daughter and reinforce road safety messages to help keep them safe:

- stress the need to concentrate and be careful at all times;
- warn of the dangers of distractions – listening to music, texting, phoning or even chatting to friends while walking are big distractions;
- keep talking about the dangers of traffic;

Art and Design House Competition – Results!

Last term, we challenged students to get creative in our Art and Design house competition. The challenge was all about portraying an important cause and raising awareness for it through a piece of art. In joint first place for the number of entries was FS and PP!

We received some amazing entries, which made our job of choosing a winner very difficult!

In third place is Lewis Horne from 8FS, with his entry raising awareness for 'pandemic puppies'. We thought that this was an excellent display of utilising materials already available, whilst showing a very relevant message!

In second place is Isabelle Tilbrook from 12AC, with her cake reflecting the importance of mental health. On top, the cake reads 'I'm fine', but from another angle it is reads 'help me'. We felt that this was a very important message, especially in a time where many have struggled!

In first place is Chloe Dyer from 7PP, with her drawing which portrays the impact of littering. We can see a polar bear suffering as the ice caps are melting, and we felt that her artistic skills portrayed her message excellently!

Well done to all the students who took part in this term's house competition. Here are some of our other highly commended entries...

School Charity – New HopeA Mother's Heart.....

As you are aware we are still supporting our charities this year, one of which is New Hope in Kenya. This is a facility dedicated to rescuing and raising orphaned children and abandoned babies in Uplands, Kenya.

Anne Chenge is the mum of New Hope Children's Centre. She started the home 20 years ago and has provided a home and education to over 3,000 children.

Her story began with taking in just one orphan into her personal home, then she took in ten and then eventually over the years it expanded to over 100 when Anne decided she needed a centre to help raise the orphaned children of Kenya.

Anne quit her job at Barclay's bank and with her husband they began New Hope Children's Centre - Uplands, Kenya. She has selflessly dedicated her entire life to this initiative.

Anne at New Hope has a mother's heart that is so much bigger than most people's. Driven by her strong faith in God she has the same energy and zeal as when she started the home and shows no sign of relinquishing the privilege of being involved with some of the most vulnerable in society.

Hand in Hand have a lovely idea for Mother's Day. You can give your Mum a unique gift and support the work at New Hope Children's Centre.

Follow this link to find out more and order your heart with your donation today.

Remember to state that you would like your donation to go to New Hope.

Food Department

One of the perks to my job is having enthusiastic students who love talking about food, especially those who cook at home.

Annie Allardyce, a student in Year 7, often tells me that she cooks at home for the whole family, she even shares photos of her culinary achievements giving me a detailed description of how the dish went. So last week, I gave Annie the responsibility to find a recipe that she likes to cook, for this week's newsletter.

Please enjoy Annie's recipe of Chicken and Mascarpone Pasta Bake, this is a great dish for families as it will serve six people.

Annie's picture below is the finished product of when she cooked it for her family. It looks delicious!

Thank you Annie, Enjoy ☺

Lent

Biblical Pause Series

COMPELLED

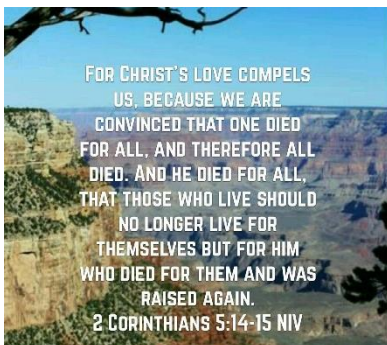

by the love of Christ

Compelled by love

This week, I have chosen to share and comment on another extract from a recent #LentLive daily reflection:

Bible reading 2 Corinthians 5:14-15

For Christ's love compels us, because we are convinced that one died for all, and therefore all died. And he died for all, that those who live should no longer live for themselves but for him who died for them and was raised again.

Reflection

St. Paul makes the point that if we have truly understood the love of Christ for us, then we will feel compelled to share that love with others, in word and deed.

Pope Francis, in Evangelii

Gaudium (The Joy of the Gospel), writes: "The primary reason for evangelising is the love of Jesus which we have received, the experience of salvation which urges us to ever greater love of him... If we do not feel an intense desire to share this love, we need to pray insistently that he will once more touch our hearts... What then happens is that 'we speak of what we have seen and heard' (1 John 1:3). The best incentive for sharing the Gospel comes from contemplating it with love, lingering over its pages and reading it with the heart."

Evangelism at its simplest is opening ourselves to the love of Christ to such an extent that this love cannot help but overflow and touch those around us.

Prayer

Loving Lord, please fill us with your love to such an extent that it overflows from us and touches other people, drawing them to you. Amen.

Action for the week

This week, take time to read one of the synoptic Gospels (Matthew, Mark or Luke) and reflect on the love that Jesus shows there.

2 Corinthians 5 verses 14-15 has a powerful message. Reflecting on these verses, the motivation to become or be a practising Christian should not simply be fear of judgement, guilt, a feeling that 'this is what I am supposed to do' or indeed the promise of eternal life. Whilst these are not necessarily wrong, it is the unconditional and magnificent love of God, demonstrated through Christ our Saviour which has the strongest compulsion for us to live for Him. Indeed, there is no fear in love and perfect love drives out all fear (1 John 4:18).

Even when looking back to the very beginning, to the first few chapters of Genesis, we could question:

What was God's motivation for making us?

Why did he explicitly make us in His image?

Why did he make us the dwelling place for Him?

Why did he send His Son?

An answer to all these questions is because He loves us. We cannot teach people to be compelled by love; this comes from a choice to have a relationship with God. It comes from within and pours out to others, drawing them to God too. Rejoice in this. Be strengthened by this. Be compelled by this. You are loved by God.
